

Soaring Scarves Academy

January #2- Hot Chocolate

Lesson Plan

Grades Addressed-K/1/2/3		Date-
Music Lesson Goal/Objective- The students will know: where chocolate originally came from, Bate, Bate chant, and a review on solfege The students will be able to: scarf dance, chant, add marshmallows to solfege hot chocolate, and watch a short Hot Chocolate video
Music Elements Addressed
Expressive:	Timbre: vocal	Duration: Beat, Rhythm	Pitch: Do, mi, and sol	Structure:
Music Standards Addressed
Perform: Dance, Sing and chant	Creating:	Relate to History/Culture: Discover where chocolate came from	Listen, Analyze, Describe:	Read/Notate Ta and Titi rhythms and solfege

Learning Activities (Be sure to address modification & differentiation needs)
The teacher will:	The student will:
1. Introduce students to scarf rules- they don't go near our mouth, don't go on our heads, you get what you get and you don't get upset	Students finish the sentences along with teacher "mouth", "head", "and you don't get upset"
2. Pass out scarves and have the children complete the Soaring Scarves Beginning Routine	Students take time to smooth out their scarves, focus, and understand the scarf dancing expectations.
3. I use any(or all) of the Tchaikovsky scarf dances.	Scarf Dance!
5. Soaring Scarves End Routine- students will be using scarves later in class.	Make a magic scarf wish and either hand in the scarf if it is collected or sit on it.
6. Watch a short video on the origin of chocolate	watch

7. Chant through Bate Bate Chocolate. You can use this chant in the story- Grandma's Chocolate	Chant
8. Add marshmallows to the hot chocolate. Use slides 11-22 if your students need a review on the basics.	Review Do, Mi, and Sol
9. There is an easy, medium and hard version of the marshmallow solfege. Choose what works best for your students and have individuals come to tap the solfege to add the marshmallow to the hot chocolate.	Add the marshmallows
10. Give students a quick brain break with a Tchaikovsky ta and titi rhythm video.	Clap and say ta and titi rhythms

This lesson plan's main purpose is to get students learning about the origins of hot chocolate and practicing solfege.

We hope you enjoyed this lesson plan from the Soaring Scarves Academy!